FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PET DRX CONFIRMS FINAL SHARE EXCHANGE RATIO

SAN JOSE, California – January 14, 2008 – Pet DRx Corporation (“Pet DRx” or the “Company”) (OTCBB: EHHA; EHHAW; EHHAU), a provider of veterinary primary care and specialized services to companion animals, today announced that, as disclosed in its Current Report on Form 8-K filed on January 10, 2008, the final exchange ratio for the merger consideration payable to former stockholders of XLNT Veterinary Care, Inc. (“XLNT”) is 0.771 per XLNT share. Thus, each issued and outstanding share of XLNT will be exchanged for 0.771 of a share of Pet DRx. Outstanding options, warrants and convertible securities issued by XLNT will be entitled to receive upon exercise or conversion, shares of Pet DRx calculated at the same exchange ratio.

After giving effect to the exchange of shares of Pet DRx for XLNT shares and the 1,361,573 shares that were validly tendered for conversion into a pro rata portion of the trust fund established in connection with the Company’s initial public offering, Pet DRx had 23,511,969 shares of common stock issued and outstanding as of January 10, 2008.

The merger between Echo Healthcare Acquisition Corp. (“Echo”), a blank check company, and XLNT, a private company was completed on January 4, 2008. In connection with the merger, Echo changed its name to Pet DRx Corporation.
